Manage

The housemanager (Bounty beheer) captures the tenant, makes him/her familiar in the house and is ready to answer any questions about the habitation of the villa. These contact details will be provided through the data provided after the final booking.

Use of the Villa

The villa is only intended as a holiday accommodation. You are deemed to take into account the views as they apply to the inhabitation of luxury residential areas in Curaçao. This means, among other things, that there should not be any nuisance for local residents (in any form whatsoever), naked or topless sunbathing and/or holding parties, hard music or other meetings where more than the number of persons booked will be (unless you have received prior written permission from the landlord, housemanager or someone on his behalf). Drug use is not allowed at all and if control shows that this is the case, the lease will be terminated immediately.

Scuba-, diving- or snorkling gear will not be cleaned in the house or in the swimming pool. Blockage of drains can occur. If sand is found in the drains while deblocking the drains, all costs for repair/renovation will be paid by the tenant.

If in doubt, Please consult the landlord and/or administrator.

Sublet-, leasing or by rental is expressly prohibited. Accommodation of more persons in the holiday home than agreed upon the reservation, or the maximum number applicable for the house, is expressly not permitted without our consent, and may lead to the premature termination of the Rental agreement on our part, without refund of rental fees.

Moving cupboards and beds, as well as sound- or television equipment or taking it outside of any part of the inside inventory-except of course crockery, glasses and cutlery for your meal outside-is prohibited.

If you leave the holiday home in the meantime and on departure, you always must close the doors and windows carefully.

7. Report any broken work or damage to the administrator of the house.
